Ronnie Barnes Endowed Scholarship

Ronnie Barnes, ATC is the current Head Athletic Trainer and Vice President for Medical Services for the New York Giants. Mr. Barnes is one of the most respected athletic trainers in the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA.) In 1996 he was awarded the NATA Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award and in 1999 he was inducted into the NATA Hall of Fame. He has twice been voted National Professional Athletic Trainer of the Year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers' Society. Mr. Barnes was a member of the NATA Board of Certification, past president of the NATA Research and Education Foundation and a recipient of the Tim Kerin Award for Excellence in Athletic Training. He recently completed a seven year term as President of the Professional Athletic Trainers' Society and he and his staff were awarded the Ed Block Courage Award as the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year in 1999.

East Carolina and Michigan State have each established Resource Centers in Ronnie Barnes name. Ronnie has been inducted into the ECU Athletic Hall of Fame and has been recognized with the Professional Achievement award from MSU. Mr. Barnes was also named the March of Dimes Man of the Year in 1999.

Ronnie's personal and professional dedication to the profession of athletic training is unmatched. He exemplifies the qualities of honesty, generosity, and a genuine concern for people.

We hope that you will join us in supporting The Ronnie Barnes Endowed Scholarship. The Endowment is being established in Ronnie's name through the NATA Research & Education Foundation. Funds from the Endowment will be used for scholarships to assist athletic training students in their pursuit of academic excellence.
